PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

CAUSE

On October 16 and November 1, 2012, Mary Emily Balderas submitted urine samples which tested positive for the use of marijuana. In a conversation with this officer, Ms. Balderas admitted intentionally using the drug in order to be returned to custody. The defendant further explained that she had to leave her boyfriend's residence due to his controlling behavior and is currently homeless. Ms. Balderas suffers from a combination of physical and mental health issues which make it difficult to maintain employment. It is anticipated that a period of time in the residential reentry center will provide a safe, drug-free environment which will allow her to find appropriate housing and to address the issues leading to her drug use.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
